

Meeting Minutes

September 10th, 2007

Lowman's Café, Smithville, Mo. 7:00 pm

- John Osborn opened the meeting. Person scheduled to give car talk not in attendance.
- Bill Auch reported 37 members in attendance and one non-member, Terry Lewis. Our total membership is now 70.
- Editor of Restorer magazine Jim Spawn was present.
- Bill Auch read our Sept. birthdays and anniversaries. Happy birthday was sung by all.
- Last meeting minutes were approved. John Osborn introduced club officers that were in attendance.
- Lyman Ridgeway discussed our good turn out at Edgerton parade. We had 15 Model As and one rebel. Quilt drawing will be later in meeting; a total of $737.00 was made on quilt ticket sales. He also told a joke that received a 9.5 rating. Questionable!
- Joy Osborn gave the treasurers report - balance of $2,353.28. Report approved.
- Bill Auch reported that the Road Runner is on our Web site. Dave Telles gave a report on the site and discussed ways to improve it in the future. He has entered it in the annual Web site contest sponsored by MAFCA.
- Etta Ridgeway asked that members contact her with any cares and concerns and she will activate the calling tree.
- Ron Anderson reported on his wife's health concerns. John Osborn reported on Richard Rector's knee surgery and recovery. Quenton Kerr was in attendance and his wife Joyce thanked everyone for their thoughtfulness and support. Their car won 1st peoples choice in Edgerton parade.
- John reminded everyone of the Wednesday morning Tech breakfasts at Hy-Vee.
- Marcia Auch had nothing to report but asked Joyce Kerr for an Edgerton ribbon for the scrapbook.
- Eddie Griggs talked about the Southside parade in St. Joe this coming weekend. He discussed where to meet and where we would have lunch following the parade. Joy Osborn said there would be Juice and doughnuts compliments of Nodaway Valley bank.
- John Osborn showed our new magnetic car signs and their storage container constructed by Eddie Griggs. Signs are available for $53.80 a pair.
- Jim Spawn spoke on the Bonnie and Clyde tour on 29 Sept. He gave a history overview of the shootout and how he was able to pursue information on this historic event. Our club will participate on this tour by assisting in parking and tour guiding during a running of the route in Platte
- Drawings: Quilt won by Mercer an acquaintance of Lyman's. Winners of door prizes were Etta Ridgeway, Gladys Lawson, Sherry Winkinhofer, Harvey Roseberry and Terry Richardson.
- Winkinhofer brought a laptop with pictures of the Edgerton parade.

Meeting adjourned at 8:00 p.m.

Respectfully, Sylvia Donius and Elisabeth Osborn, acting Secretaries
