

Meeting Minutes

August 4th, 2007

Lowman's Café, Smithville, Mo. 7:00 pm

- John Osborn opened the meeting and asked Lee Donius to talk about his car. Lee bought it at an auction and has had a number of problems; Sylvia drives her modern car.
- Concerns: Dorothy and Dan Wantland celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary. Joyce Kerr expresses her thanks for all the cards and prayers for Queton. He's home and doing better than ever.
- Bill Auch announced 36 persons present. He introduced our guests Greg and Alice Grateke. Our guest Harry Lewis has a 1931 Model A coupe, however it is titled as a 1932 with 47,000 miles. He said he also has a 1948 Chevy. Neither car has been restored. Members Ken and Sherry Winkinhofer were able to attend their first meeting. New member Rick Dakon came late; he has a 1929 Model A pickup. We want to thank Larry Gilmore for the pontoon rides.
- Lyman reported the following: The quilt drawing will be at our September meeting. Be sure and have all of your stubs in for the drawing. Another $75.00 was turned in from the garage sale.
- The club gave Sammie badges of appreciation for the musical entertainment at our picnic.
- Secretary report was read and approved.
- Treasurers report: Balance on hand 8/6/2007: $2054.11. Report filed for audit.
- A phone tree committee has been formed and several ladies volunteered – Etta Ridgeway is the chairwoman.
- Publications: The Roadrunner is looking good. An error in the date of the next board meeting in August was announced. It will be Thursday the 16th. It is right on the Web site.
- Dave announced the additional pages on the Web – trivia and to E-mail if you wish to order T-shirts or caps. MAFCA is holding a contest for the best Web-site; results will be announced in November.
- Activities: Tim reminded us of the “Bonnie and Clyde” tour on Sept. 29th. Get your reservations in as soon as possible. Pioneer days in Edgerton is on Sept. 8th. Shrine swap meet is this coming week-end. Be sure to sign up to help.
- Lyman reported from the By-laws committee. He passed out copies to members and then read and discussed suggested changes. Sammie Rhoades moved we accept the changes – Leland Daise seconded the motion. After discussion the motion was passed.
- New Business: An audit of the treasurer's books will be done in November.
- Drawing for the door prize was held; Vickie Roseberry won a lovely pitcher. The pot had $24.00 in it.

Meeting adjourned at 8:00 p.m.

Respectfully, Barbara Anderson, Secretary