Presidents Comments:

March is going out like a lion...rain, sleet, snow and generally miserable. Hopefully April will be an improvement as we start out the month with the "Shakedown Cruise" on the 7th and Topeka to the Ensley Tulip Garden Tour on the 21st.

Doug, our Tour Director is busy getting some fun stuff for us to do this summer. Guaranteed to be a fun filled season!

We will be visiting the Cameron Vets home on May 19th. Don't forget the Regional in Springfield on June 4th through 8th where we will be sponsoring the car games on Wednesday, the 6th.

Driving our A's is as much fun as the destination, which is usually involves food and fellowship. Looking forward to seeing you at the upcoming events this season.

Loura Cook, President.

If you could kick the person in the pants responsible for most of your trouble, you wouldn't sit for a month.

Editor's Comments:

This is how to write a newsletter! I had close to a dozen contributors this issue counting the pictures and articles and it made my job so much easier! And it makes the newsletter a much more interesting issue when so many members contribute. Thanks so much!! You all have got to be getting tired of just reading my point of view, so keep up the good work. Send me those articles you'd like to see printed, stories you come across, or just your point of view on one of our club outings. It all makes good reading for the Road Runner!

This month was a little difficult to get out in another way. I had my right carpal tunnel surgery last week, and I think I over-estimated how soon I'd be comfortable getting back to a keyboard. So if you see any boo-boos, be gentle! Although with Doug being my new proof reader, I doubt any make it through. Just doing some pre-emptive apologies just in case.

I hope you have had a chance to go check out our new website at nwmomodela.com. Our site had become pretty stale since our webmaster Dave Telles left the club, although he had continued to maintain the essentials for us. With a little gentle urging from Bob Martin, the Board finally decided to push forward with a new site. I learned a few new things sitting it up, but I think it's good to go now. I'll be turning it over to our new webmaster Nelson Young just as soon as we can get together to review it together. I know Nelson will do a great job!

Been a busy spring, but better busy than bored!

Happy A'ing

Sherry Wink
Editor

Walt's Old Time Tech Tip

From one of our exchange newsletter, Quail Mail, from the Lehigh Valley Model A Club in Reading Pennsylvania

Gas Gauge Repair

Found in the March 2018 issue of "the Forty-Horse Gazette", from the Ventura County Model A Ford Club in California

Once the gauge is out of the tank and the glass and gaskets removed, clean all the parts. If repainting the numbers is necessary do that with Testors model paint that is gasoline resistant. This is available through hobby and model shops.

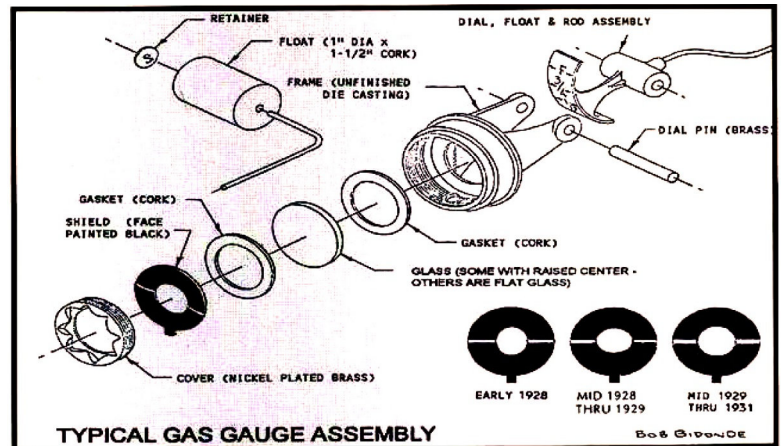

The gasket set comes with a large cork or neoprene gasket and two small cork or neoprene gaskets as well as the one or two brass washers.

The large cork gasket goes into the gas tank hole first, the gauge follows and rests against this gasket, the brass washers is on the out side and allows the flange nut to be tightened with out moving the gauge.

We recommend at least two brass washers and as many as three, that is why we recommended saving the ones that were on the gauge when it was removed.

Place one of the small washers against the gauge housing, then the glass next a gasket and then the metal face plate.

With all the parts cleaned and the new float installed on the end of the gauge wire ready to proceed with replacement into the car. When you purchase the gasket kits from the parts suppliers some come with only one large brass washer. At least two of these are needed and when we removed the gauge from the sedan, which was very original and complete, it had three of these washers.

Have you ever seen the inside of a Model A gas tank? I hadn't until I ran across these pictures posted by Jay McCord on the MAFCA Facebook page!

Silent Auction Results!

Wow!! You've still got it, that's all I can say. Members donated generously and a few members went over and above and sought out commercial vender donations too. So the pickings on auction night were not bad, not bad at all if I do say so myself! We had baked goods including Bill Matteson's "Special Brownies". Mary Lou said what really made them special was that after Bill made them in the kitchen from scratch, he cleaned up after himself too! There were handmade items, vintage hats, and Model A parts galore. There were books, and pictures and signs, and you name it, it might have been on one of the tables!

And our members did us proud by going out there and bidding up the items. I saw a few ladies watching their special prizes with eagle eyes, but no fights, so we all behaved ourselves. But there was some heavy last minute buying going on as Bill Auch counted down the last seconds.

And the big news? According to the official results from Bob Martin, after all the counting was done, our grand total for a night of fun was $1096.01!! Now how ya going beat that for an easy and fun night of fundraising! GOOD JOB EVERYBODY!!

Spring Hats

By Sherry Wink

Included here are an assortment of spring hats as featured in "The Charles William Stores, Inc." 1928 Spring and Summer catalog. A few things I want to point out: One, all hats did not have to have the classic bell cloche shape. Two, hats were not just black or brown. Their colors were as varied as the dresses and coats they were matched with. And three, since these are hats from 1928, there is nary an eyebrow to be seen!

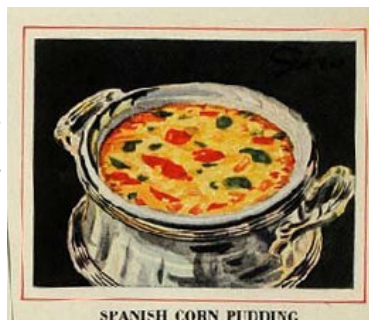

This recipe is one of the recipes featured in the 1928 Eagle Brand Milk Advertisement shown in the "Brands We Still Know" column on the right. Seems an odd combination for sweetened condensed milk, but it's worth a try right. Now just have to find "green corn".

Spanish Corn Pudding

1/2 cup Borden's Sweetened Condensed Milk
1 can (2 1/2 cups) green corn
1/4 cup chopped green pepper
2 tablespoons pimento pepper chopped
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs beaten

Blend together thoroughly all the ingredients. Pour into a buttered baking dish and bake in a moderate oven (350°F) for about 25 minutes. Serve as an entrée or as the main course of a light dinner.

Brands We Still Know

Gail Borden introduced Borden's Sweetened Condensed Milk in 1856. He is reported to have committed himself to finding a safe milk product after witnessing several children die from contaminated milk aboard a ship which he was on returning to the US.

Borden borrowed the idea for using a vacuum evaporator from the Shakers, who used this technology to preserve fruit. His process which combined vacuum pressure, heat and added sugar produced a dairy product that has a safe shelf life of years.

Borden got rich supplying condensed milk to the Union Army in the Civil War. In a patriotic spirit Borden changed the name to Eagle, with the American bald eagle as his trademark.

Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk was credited in the late 1800s with significantly lowering the infant mortality rate in North America.

Interesting note: In 1931, a Borden Kitchens' promotion offered homemakers $25 for their original recipes. The rules called for "recipes in which Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk makes cooking quicker, easier, and surer." Over 80,000 recipes were submitted.

A 1928 Eagle Brand ad

Is Your "A" Ready for Spring?

Submitted by Doug Scott

There were 11 members at Terry Richardson's shop on Saturday, March 24 to determine if Walt & Mary Ann Jones' 1929 Tudor was ready for touring season this year. Of particular challenge was the fact that the car wouldn't start when Walt stopped driving it last fall. So, the group came prepared to do some extra work to solve that issue. Lead mechanics were Terry Richardson and Charlie Ishmael who had the group complete the following maintenance tasks:

- Drained the gas tank to remove debris and moisture.
- Cleaned the sediment bulb filter.
- Flushed the radiator and added new anti-freeze.
- Drained the oil and filled with new.
- Lubricated all the grease fittings in the chassis.
- Tightened all lug nuts and checked the tire pressure.
- Charged the battery.
- Cleaned the spark plugs.
- Serviced the distributor, including cleaning & adjusting the points, installing a new condenser, and replacing a cracked distributor body.

With Jim Spawn at the wheel, he turned on the ignition, engaged the starter, adjusted the choke (and after several failed attempts and further troubleshooting), the Tudor came to life...just in time for this year's driving season.

For a complete list of preventive maintenance tasks, see the Appendix of "Model A Ford Mechanics Handbook, Volume 1" (the red book) by Les Andrews.

Vintage Easter Autos!

Cars were exciting and new in the early 1900's so Easter cards found them an interesting subject to use. Here are a few that I found celebrating Easter.

An Interesting Modification

These pictures were recently shared on the MAFCA Facebook page by Lars Hedström, an avid Model A collector and historian in Sweden. He stated "This is a very special Model A made in Sweden. Look at the body! The text tells us that it is aimed for a "sick person transport. Built in October 1932. This customized Swedish body made medivac has many interesting details to look at. Inclined windshield, completely different pressing on the body, no b-Pole."
